

Electoral rolls grow as deadline approaches

Electoral rolls for the forthcoming House of Assembly elections close at 6 pm on Wednesday 19 February.

Electoral Commissioner Julian Type said today that it was pleasing to see that state enrolment had already increased by 750 since the elections were announced, and that around 2,000 Tasmanians had updated their existing enrolment.

As of this afternoon 365,722 Tasmanians are enrolled to vote.

Mr Type said "We know we're still missing several thousand voters concentrated especially in the 18 to 25 years cohorts. With ten days to go, time is running out: don't miss your opportunity to have your say on 15 March.

"Enrolment forms are available at any post office, or enrol on-line via our website."

ENDS — 4:00 PM Thursday 6 February 2014
