a candidate at the Legislative Council election held on the day of 2..... for the electoral division mentioned above, make the following return of all election expenditure incurred by me or my election agent* on my behalf in connection with the election.

On the following page set out:

- the name, description and address of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid;
- the date of payment; and
- the matter in respect of which it was paid.

Sums paid for broadcasting advertising, television advertising, other advertising, printing and the like must be set out separately and under separate headings.

This form is to be accompanied by any invoice account or receipt in respect of each item of election expenditure that exceeds $20.

The declaration on the back page of this form is to be made before either a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Declarations.

Note: This return (and associated receipts) must be lodged with the Electoral Commissioner within sixty days after the day on which the result of the election is declared.

*Section 158 of the Electoral Act 2004 provides for candidates to appoint an election agent. An election agent may incur or authorise expenditure on behalf of the candidate. The appointment must be in writing and signed by the candidate. Each candidate may appoint one election agent only.

Note:

The following declaration must be made before either a Justice of Peace or a Commissioner for Declarations.

I solemnly and sincerely declare that this return is true in every particular and that, except as appears in this return, I have not and no person has with my authority

- paid any amount by way of relevant electoral expenditure that was incurred on my behalf in connection with the election; or
- incurred any such expenditure or any liability for any such expenditure; or
- given or promised any reward, office, employment, or valuable consideration on account or in respect of any such expenditure.

I make this solemn declaration under the Oaths Act 2001
