

Election rolls close Wednesday 3 April

Saturday 4 May 2013 will be polling day for electors enrolled for the Legislative Council divisions of Montgomery, Nelson and Pembroke (see attached descriptions).

People who are enrolling for the first time or need to update their details must do so by 6pm on Wednesday 3 April.

With full federal and state elections due within the year now is the perfect time for people to ensure their enrolment is up-to-date in order to have their say, and not just those who need to vote in the Legislative Council elections.

Electors unsure about their correct division or enrolment should call 13 23 26.

Voting at Legislative Council elections is compulsory.

ENDS — 3:00 pm Tuesday 26 March 2013

Division descriptions

Please note that these descriptions are necessarily general. Maps of the divisions are available on the TEC website, and electors are invited to call the TEC on 13 23 26 to clarify their enrolment.

Division of Montgomery

Montgomery is a north western division extending from Burnie to Ulverstone, although it does not include that part of Burnie west of Shorewell Creek. Montgomery includes most of the hinterland of Burnie City and Central Coast municipal areas, but not Turners Beach, Forth or Kindred.

Division of Nelson

Nelson takes in Sandy Bay, Dynnyrne, Tolmans Hill, Mount Nelson, Fern Tree, Ridgeway, Tarooma, Bonnet Hill, Kingston and Kingston Beach, along with parts of Leslie Vale, Neika and Longley.

Division of Pembroke

Pembroke encompasses that part of the Clarence City municipal area lying west of the Meehan Range and includes Otago, Risdon Vale, Geilston Bay, Lindisfarne, Rose Bay, Rosny, Bellerive, Warrane, Mornington, Howrah and Tranmere. It does not include the area known as Howrah Gardens.
