

Candidates announced

When nominations closed at 12 noon on Thursday 10 April 2014, nine candidates (seven men and two women) had been nominated to contest the 2014 Legislative Council elections to be held on Saturday 3 May 2014. Voting is compulsory.

By division candidate numbers are—

Division of Huon	7 candidates
Division of Rosevears	2 candidates

A list of candidates for each division follows. Candidates are listed in alphabetical order. It should be remembered that the names on the ballot paper are rotated and may not appear in this order. If a candidate has been nominated by a registered party, this will be indicated on the ballot paper.

Electors who cannot get to a polling place on polling day must vote early. This can be done by post, or in person during normal business hours at these locations:

Hobart:	Australian Electoral Commission, Second floor, NAB House, 86 Collins St
Launceston:	105 George St
Interstate:	any Australian Electoral Commission divisional office (from Wednesday 16 April)

Electors who will be overseas or in a remote area during the polling period may apply for an express vote, available at www.tec.tas.gov.au.

Postal vote applications are available at any post office within the Huon and Rosevears divisions, at any Tasmanian electoral office, on our website www.tec.tas.gov.au or by calling 13 23 26.

Assistance for vision-impaired electors

An electronic system to assist vision-impaired electors to vote independently will be available during the pre-poll period and on polling day. For more details electors can call 13 23 26.
