

Electoral Disclosure and Funding Act 2023 sections 100, 111, 118, 123 & 128

Who should use this form?

If the registered details of an electoral participant change, the party agent or official agent acting on the participant's behalf must notify the Tasmanian Electoral Commission of the changes. These electoral participants are:

- » Independent candidates/members
- » Endorsed candidates/members
- » Associated entities
- » Third-party campaigners
- » The party agent or official agent themselves.

Note: some electoral participants may be acting as their own agents – e.g. an independent candidate.

The relevant agent must lodge this form within 30 days of the date of the change of registered details. This form can only be used to update existing registration details, and not to apply for new registrations.

Registered parties needing to apply to change their registered details (including their registered officer's details) under the Electoral Act 2004 must do so using Application to change the name of a registered party form.
