Electoral Commission

REPORT ON PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS

2007 to 2010

To: The Honourable Susan Lynette Smith
President of the Legislative Council, and

The Honourable Michael Robert Polley
Speaker of the House of Assembly

We are honoured to submit this report on Tasmanian Parliamentary elections conducted during the period 2007 to 2010.

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission has statutory responsibilities for the independent and impartial conduct of elections and referendums including:

- House of Assembly elections, by-elections and recounts;
- Legislative Council elections and by-elections;
- State referendums;
- the implementation of electoral boundary redistributions;

This report on parliamentary elections is in addition to the Tasmanian Electoral Commission's annual report and has been prepared in accordance with Section 13 of the Electoral Act 2004.

Changes to the membership of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission comprises the Chairperson, the Electoral Commissioner and one other Member. The inaugural members of the Commission were Richard Bingham (Chairperson), Liz Gillam (Member) and Bruce Taylor (Electoral Commissioner).

Richard Bingham resigned from the Commission on 31 May 2009 following his appointment as Ombudsman for South Australia. Liz Gillam was appointed as the new Commission Chairperson on 7 September 2009 and Christine Fraser was appointed to the vacant Commission Member position on 30 November 2009.

2008 Legislative Council Electoral Boundary Redistribution

The Legislative Council Electoral Boundaries Act 1995 requires that a redistribution commence when nine years have elapsed since the appointment of the previous Redistribution Committee. In October 2007, His Excellency the Governor appointed the Redistribution Committee and Tribunal. The Committee comprised Electoral Commissioner, Bruce Taylor, Cassandra Short, nominated by the Australian Statistician, and Surveyor-General, Peter Murphy. The Committee published its initial proposal on 9 February 2008, and was then succeeded by the Redistribution Tribunal.

The Tribunal comprised the three Committee members, together with Commission Chairperson, Richard Bingham, and Member, Liz Gillam. The Tribunal published a further redistribution proposal on 12 April 2008, a second further proposal and determination of names and boundaries on 10 May 2008, an initial transition proposal on 24 May 2008, and transition determination on 14 June 2008.

A map of the new Legislative Council electoral boundaries and division names has been included in this report.

2009 House of Assembly Electoral Boundary Redistribution

A Commonwealth redistribution of the House of Representatives electoral boundaries in Tasmania took effect on 16 February 2009. The Tasmanian Parliament chose to adopt the Commonwealth House of Representatives boundaries for the purposes of House of Assembly divisions by amending the Constitution Act 1934 to ensure they coincide.

The amendments to the Constitution Act 1934 to realign the Tasmanian House of Assembly electoral boundaries with the Commonwealth House of Representatives boundaries took effect on 27 April 2009.

A map of the new House of Assembly electoral boundaries has been included in this report.

House of Assembly election and recounts

A general election for the House of Assembly was held on 20 March 2010.

In 2008 a recount was conducted for a vacancy in the House of Assembly division of Franklin following the resignation of the Honourable Paul Lennon.

In 2008 a recount was conducted for a vacancy in the House of Assembly division of Denison following the resignation of Margaret (Peg) Putt.

In 2009 a recount was conducted for a vacancy in the House of Assembly division of Franklin following the resignation of the Honourable Paula Wriedt.

Legislative Council elections

Since the previous report, the following Legislative Council elections have been held:

| | |
|-------------|---------------------------------|
| May 2007 | Montgomery, Nelson and Pembroke |
| May 2008 | Huon and Rosevears |
| May 2009 | Derwent, Mersey and Windermere |
| August 2009 | Pembroke (by-election) |
| May 2010 | Apsley and Elwick |

'Absent' voting replaced with 'out of division' voting

For the first time at a Tasmanian Parliamentary election, those voting at polling places outside their division were not required to complete an absent vote. Instead of printed rolls, electors were marked off an electronic roll on netbook computers. All five division election rolls were placed on each computer, meaning that all electors could be marked directly off the roll for their division regardless of which polling place in Tasmania they chose to vote at.

Previously, those completing an absent vote were required to go to a separate table to complete a special declaration form and have their ballot paper sealed in the envelope for processing after polling day. The electronic searching for voters has made the voting process faster and more convenient for voters and election officials, and ensured voters are voting for the correct division they are enrolled in.

Tasmania's Hare-Clark Electoral System

The Hare-Clark electoral system is a Single Transferable Vote (STV) method of proportional representation used in multi-member electorates. Single transferable vote means that a ballot paper moves between candidates as determined by the elector's preferences.

Background and features

Where does the name Hare-Clark come from?

Thomas Hare was an Englishman who, in 1856, proposed the idea of a proportional representation election system which was further developed and became known as the Hare system. Andrew Inglis Clark, Tasmanian Attorney-General 1888 and a member of the Tasmanian Parliament, introduced a modified version of the Hare system into Tasmanian law in 1896. This system is now known as the Hare-Clark electoral system.

Representation in the Parliament

Under Hare-Clark, parties, groups and independents are elected to the House of Assembly in proportion to their support in the electorate. The composition of the House reflects the proportion of primary votes on a Statewide basis.

Robson Rotation

Robson Rotation is a process of rotating candidate names within a column so that favoured (top and bottom) positions are shared equally between all candidates. Neil Robson, a member of the House of Assembly, introduced the process to the Tasmanian Parliament in 1979.

Need for parties to stand extra candidates

Parties and groups usually nominate more candidates than they expect to be elected, in order to provide a pool of candidates to contest any recount to fill a vacancy.

As a result, the voters are provided with a choice of candidates within each party, as well as a choice of candidates across parties, groups and independents.

Recounts

When a vacancy occurs a new member is elected by a recount process based on votes cast at the previous general election. Only unsuccessful candidates at the general election are eligible to contest the recount.

Only the ballot papers which were used to elect the vacating member are distributed in the recount. These votes are distributed to contesting candidates. The candidates receiving the least votes are excluded until a candidate receives a majority (50% + 1).

Is Hare-Clark the same in Local Government elections?

The Hare-Clark electoral system is used for Tasmanian local government elections, with some changes. The number to be elected varies between Councils, depending on the size of the Council and whether there are any by-elections. Also, candidates are listed in a single column, and Robson rotation is used for councillor elections and, since 2005, for mayoral elections.

A broad description

How do you cast a vote

The ballot paper directs the voter to— place the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and so on as the case requires, beside the names of the candidates in the order of his/her preference.

To be formal, a ballot paper must have at least the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 with no repetitions or omissions, otherwise it will not be counted.

How is a candidate elected?

A candidate is elected when his/her total number of votes equals or exceeds the quota.

What is the quota?

The quota is the lowest number of votes a candidate needs to be certain of election.

To calculate the quota, the number of formal votes is divided by one more than the number of candidates to be elected (rounded up to the next whole number). For the House of Assembly, which elects five members per electorate, the quota is one sixth or 16.7% of the formal votes.

If five candidates each receive a quota (just over one sixth of the formal vote) then less than one quota of the votes remain.

How votes are counted

The first step is to distribute all ballot papers to the candidates according to each ballot paper's first preference. The quota is then calculated from the total formal vote.

If any candidate(s) receives more votes than the quota, he/she are declared elected, and the excess votes (surplus) are passed on to continuing candidates. Following the distribution of each surplus, any candidate(s) who has reached the quota is declared elected; and any resulting surplus again passed on.

Once all surplus votes have been distributed the candidate with the fewest votes is excluded and all of their votes passed on to continuing candidates. Further candidates are excluded until another candidate reaches the quota.

The process of distributing surplus votes and excluding candidates continues until five candidates reach the quota. In some cases the final candidate(s) will be elected without reaching the quota as all other candidates have been either elected or excluded.

Do you always need a quota to get elected?

In House of Assembly elections, it is common that the last elected member in a division is elected without obtaining a quota. In some cases the last two elected members in a division are elected without each obtaining a quota.

During the distribution of preferences, some votes are "lost" from the count. A small number are lost due to rounding of fractional numbers. A more significant number of votes are "exhausted" toward the end of the count, as many ballot papers do not show a preference for any remaining candidate.

Where the contest for the last seat is close, it is common for the remaining two candidates to both have less than a quota. The candidate with the least votes is excluded, and the other candidate elected without reaching the quota. The more votes that are lost during the scrutiny, the more likely that not all elected members will obtain the quota.

A less common situation occurs where remaining three candidates are contesting the last two seats. In this case, the candidate with the least votes is excluded, and the other two candidates elected without either reaching the quota.
