Legislative Council – Nomination form

(Candidate nominated by a registered party)

What is this form for?

This form is to be used for the nomination of a candidate by a registered officer of a registered party for election to the Legislative Council and to appear together with the name of that party.

Do not use this form if you wish to nominate as an individual ‘non-party’ candidate. Please contact the returning officer or the Tasmanian Electoral Commission for further information.

The following 2 parts must be completed and lodged:

PART A: “Party nomination” — to be completed and signed by the registered officer of the party;

PART B: “Candidate consent and declaration” — to be completed and signed by the candidate nominated.

Role of the registered officer

The registered officer of a party has the responsibility for nominating a party candidate, and for certifying that the candidate has been endorsed by the party for election to the Legislative Council. It is important that both the candidates and registered officer work together to ensure that the candidate is properly nominated.

How to lodge the form

- Completed forms must be lodged personally, emailed (as a scanned or photographed image) or posted so as to be received by the returning officer for the relevant division or the Electoral Commissioner before noon on nomination day.
- The nomination form is to be accompanied by $400 in cash or a cheque drawn on itself by an authorised financial institution. Personal cheques will not be accepted. A nomination is not valid without receipt of this payment.
- It is advisable to lodge nomination forms as early as possible during the nomination process to enable any problems to be rectified before nominations close.
- It is the responsibility of the candidate or the registered officer to ensure that the nomination form and the deposit are received by the returning officer for the relevant division or by the Electoral Commissioner before the close of nominations. Late nominations cannot be accepted.

Candidate away and unable to sign?

If a candidate is away and unable to sign any part of this form, the returning officer may accept a completed and signed copy of those parts by email to add to the nomination form, provided all accompanying parts are received prior to close of nominations.

Note: Providing legal advice to candidates or parties is outside the role of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission and returning officers. Candidates unsure of their eligibility to nominate are strongly advised to obtain interpretation of the relevant legislation from their own legal advisers.

Candidate eligibility

The following sections of the Constitution Act 1934 and the Electoral Act 2004 relate to a person's eligibility to be nominated and elected. They may be viewed online at www.thelaw.tas.gov.au.

Constitution Act 1934

Section 14 (Qualifications of Members)

The section sets out some qualifications including requirements for residency in Tasmania.

Section 32 (Office of profit)

Must be read in conjunction with section 2 of the Constitution (State Employees) Act 1944.

Section 33 (Contractors)

When reading this section, please note that under section 33(4), a candidate is not disqualified from being elected if the contract or agreement was entered into prior to nomination and is effectually terminated or rescinded within 6 months after their election.

Electoral Act 2004

Section 75 (Persons who may be nominated and elected)

Section 76 (Persons ineligible for nomination)

Candidates unsure of their eligibility to nominate are strongly advised to obtain interpretation of the relevant legislation from their own legal advisers.
