

Legislative Council nomination form

Candidate nominated by a registered party

What is this form for?

This form is to be used for the nomination of a candidate by a registered officer of a registered party for election to the Legislative Council and to appear together with the name of that party.

Do not use this form if you wish to nominate as a 'non-party' candidate. Please contact the returning officer or the Tasmanian Electoral Commission for further information.

Two parts must be completed before lodging the form:

PART A: "Party nomination" – to be completed and signed by the registered officer of the party;

PART B: "Candidate consent and declaration" – to be completed and signed by the candidate nominated.

Role of the registered officer

The registered officer of a party has the responsibility for nominating a party candidate, and for certifying that the candidate has been endorsed by the party for election to the Legislative Council. It is important that both the candidates and registered officer work together to ensure that the candidate is properly nominated.

How to lodge this form

Completed forms must be lodged personally, emailed (as a scanned or photographed image) or posted so as to be received by the returning officer for the relevant division or the Electoral Commissioner before noon on nomination day.

The nomination form is to be accompanied by $400 in cash or a cheque drawn on itself by an authorised financial institution. Personal cheques will not be accepted. A nomination is not valid without receipt of this payment.

It is advisable to lodge all nomination forms as early as possible during the nomination process to enable any problems to be rectified before nominations close.

It is the responsibility of the candidate or the registered officer to ensure that the nomination form and the deposit are received by the returning officer for the relevant division or the Electoral Commissioner before the close of nominations.

Late nominations cannot be accepted.

Candidate away and unable to sign?

Parts A and B may be completed on different forms provided that both Parts, together with the nomination deposit, are received by the returning officer or Electoral Commissioner prior to the close of nominations.

Note: Providing legal advice to candidates or parties is outside the role of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission and returning officers. Candidates unsure of their eligibility to nominate are strongly advised to obtain interpretation of the relevant legislation from their own legal advisers.
