Candidate statements

You can only complete your candidate statement online at www.tec.tas.gov.au/statements.

If you have a disability which prevents you from entering your candidate statement on-line, please call the TEC on 1800 801 701 to discuss alternative arrangements.

The following are the approved requirements for candidate statements:

- Statements will accompany the ballot papers sent to each elector and will be published on the TEC's website
- There will be one statement per candidate, even if the candidate is contesting two elections
- Statements are limited to 600 characters, including spaces, punctuation and carriage returns.
- The heading above your statement will include your ballot paper name and the position(s) you are contesting.
- Statements are limited to two paragraphs
- Statements may not include lists or dot points: use semi-colons within paragraphs if necessary
- Statements may be amended or rejected at the Electoral Commissioner's discretion
- You may not mention another candidate by name without his or her written consent
- You may not refer to the office of Justice of the Peace
- You may not refer to giving gifts, donations or prizes
- You are responsible for the accuracy of your statement
- Statements are not compulsory for a valid nomination
- Statements must be submitted before the close of nominations at 12 noon on Thursday 22 July 2021

Candidate photographs

You are invited to submit a digital photograph for publication with your candidate statement.

The following are the approved requirements for photographs:

- They should be passport style, that is, head and shoulders on a neutral background. However, you may smile and/or wear glasses, as you wish
- They should be recent
- Photographs will be published in black and white at a resolution of 300 dpi
- Photographs may be adjusted or rejected at the Electoral Commissioner's discretion

Candidate web links

You are invited to submit a web link with your candidate statement, as an opportunity to present more detailed policy and personal information to interested voters. The link could be your own website or a Facebook page or other online presence. Web links will be published on the TEC's website, at the Electoral Commissioner's discretion, and you are responsible for the content on the linked pages.
