Changes since publication of this booklet

Please note the following changes to the information in this booklet, due to amendments to the Local Government Act 1993 in December 2018.

Page 3 – Nomination as a councillor

(section 270)

Section 270(1)(c) of the Act sets out a number of sections under which a person may be barred from nominating as a candidate by a court. This section has been amended to include being barred under section 223A, in addition to the other sections already listed.

(schedule 5)

The office of a councillor becomes vacant if, on the day on which he or she begins to hold that office, he or she is a member of any Parliament in Australia and remains such a member for 30 days continuously during his or her term of office as a councillor.

The office of a councillor also becomes vacant if he or she becomes a member of any Parliament in Australia after commencing to hold the office of councillor.

(These provisions used to apply only to being or becoming a member of the Parliament of Tasmania.)
