ARNOL, Cheryl

Candidate for Mayor

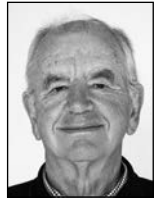

Our area needs stability and experience in the mayoral role. I have experience as a local government leader over the past 20 years' in the deputy mayor, mayoral and councillor roles. I have a long history of governance in organisations and regulatory authorities as well as small business ownership and working in private enterprise.

Open and transparent governance is paramount for the community with Council decisions made in accordance with the strategic plan and financial capacity. I will bring stability, experience, respect, integrity and ethics to the office of the mayor.

FORBES YOUNG, Robert

Candidate for Councillor and Mayor

As your mayor I will put people first and lead a consultative, open council focused on sound finances and core services while supporting local jobs, tourism and industry. My 45 years as a Tasmanian lawyer and company director gave me expertise in business, finance, legal compliance and planning. Community matters to me: former President of Royal Guide Dogs Tasmania, I also volunteered with other charities for many years.

A permanent Orford area resident, I have been a ratepayer for 44 years. If you want me as your mayor, I must first be elected councillor. Please vote 1 councillor and 1 mayor

GREGSON, Kenneth

Candidate for Councillor

If elected councillor of GSBC, I propose to place before Council a vote to have a board of inquiry conducted by the state government, enabling an independent investigation into council matters.

I like the freedom of looking at issues on an issue-by-issue basis, thereby not a member of any political party, business, lobby or advocacy group, which either have explicit or implicit ideological parameters, which I believe may have constraints on future, objective decision making. My candidature is not one based on longevity or ego, but a genuine desire for local government to be open and accountable.

LOGIE, Jenny

Candidate for Councillor

I have a strong business background and a demonstrated commitment to maintaining our quality of life, growing our economy and caring for the environment. I value honesty and integrity.

My “can do” attitude, and my strengths in communication, leadership and the ability to find common ground have contributed to many community achievements in my 16 years in GSB, including Bicheno Food and Wine Festival, Swansea/Bicheno Community Bank and Little Penguins Child Care Centre. In recognition, I received the 2013 GSBC Citizen of the Year award and was named 2018 East Coast “Tourism Driver of the Year”
