I was born in Launceston and raised in the Cressy area. I have been part of the community for most of my life and understand the problems and challenges of the industries and the families they support. I believe the quality of life in the Northern Midlands was and is special.

We have to deal with change, but we need to be sensitive to the past and understand that development must reflect the expectations of all who live in this municipality. Now is the time to set a direction that Council should follow in the next four years. I want to lead that change in consultation with the community.

BOLTON, Jennifer

I live in Ross where I have sought national heritage listing and flood protection for the Ross Bridge. The Northern Midlands is home to many significant heritage sites that play a vital role in attracting tourists to our area. I believe the Council needs to engage a full-time heritage officer to ensure effective management and protection of these sites. Equally important is our natural environment and agriculture industry. I believe Council should employ a local environment officer who can provide practical assistance with weed control and has knowledge of the native flora and fauna.

BROOKS, Matthew

Candidate for Councillor

Proudly residing in the Northern Midlands all of my life, I am married with three young children and am actively involved with local clubs around the Longford area. Very passionate about the community I live in and a strong voice for issues that do concern people. Common sense thinking and experience in local government will ensure the region will stay strong and sustainable. Working in a team to achieve every opportunity that presents itself is a very important quality to have in the municipality.

CALVERT, Andrew

Candidate for Councillor

I am a family man residing in Longford and hold a senior position in the rural industry.

I am an experienced Councillor who listens and stands up for both town and country. I offer myself for re-election as I am committed to being independent with a practical and balanced approach. I understand the challenge Council faces to deliver value to its ratepayers. Your support is a vote for economic growth and development, respect for our heritage, whilst striving to make Northern Midlands an even better place to live. Vote 1 Andrew Calvert.

CLARKE, Joanne

Candidate for Councillor

I am a local business owner of the Northern Midlands municipality, having been able to hold this position for 19 years, has enabled me to be on top of local issues within the community. In this time I have observed steady growth. Given the opportunity to represent the Northern Midlands and to bring forward new ideas to the Council table. A vote 1 for me will not only give a voice for the businesses of the community it will also give a common sense approach to the everyday issues that arise.

I fell in love with the Northern Midlands – its rural character, unique villages, community spirit and sense of optimism – the moment I arrived here. It's why I choose to live in Perth. I offer an energetic voice and strong leadership to bring people together to create positive changes across the region. We need sustainable growth, sensible financial management, and smart decisions to preserve and enhance the quality of life we wish to see continue into the future. As an experienced advocate, I am ready to serve all ratepayers on Council. I would be honoured to have your support and your vote.

I am attending the International Astronautical Congress in Bremen, Germany, where I seek opportunities for Tasmania, to advance farming with satellite data, bring space industries to the Northern Midlands, and create amazing youth activities. I look at ways to improve the visitor experience, such as providing on-site interpretation of the Ross Bridge convict art and investing in the surrounding environment, as well as a whole new approach to tourism with the Australian Convict Trail for walking and cycling from the Bass Strait ferry to Port Arthur, via Longford and Ross.

POLLEY, Michael

Candidate for Councillor

Council must assist all our communities to be socially and economically sustainable. My action plan includes to minimise rate increases; help each town receive a fair share of Council's resources; provide walking and bike trails plus improved recreation facilities; ensure an "open for business" attitude towards development and growth; capitalise on our built and natural heritage; make our municipal area a great place to live, work and play.

I have the skills, experience and time to be your strong advocate at the Council table.

READ, James
