I want people to feel connected to our city, be informed, feel part of the decision-making process and know their voice is being heard. I've shown I can connect with all people, listen, simplify and represent with proven leadership. I am approachable. I have energy and enthusiasm to progress the good work and build upon our success and develop the city beyond the river precincts. My actions make me trustworthy. I consider all views in our community, act respectfully and make decisions to improve our city. I'm asking for your support by voting 1, Gerard Enniss for councillor and deputy mayor.

HOLLISTER, Peter Graham

Candidate for councillor, deputy mayor

Devonport is a fantastic city and I am passionate about its development. The Living City project has invigorated Devonport but it's not finished yet. I support further development to continue to energise the city, increase business and create jobs for our people. I will also work to encourage more state and national events that bring increased visitors and economic activity.

Raised in Devonport I am a Vietnam veteran, former business owner and former disability carer. I am a life member of Youth Family and Community Connections. An experienced, progressive, and committed councillor.

No political agenda & independent, I will base my decisions on fact & will use my 11 years on Council to lead as an accountable & hard working mayor of a city I am proud of, where I grew up, & excited for our region's future. As your deputy mayor I aimed for low rates, environment change, free parking and tip days due to cost of living & lack of housing pressures. I have a proven record of consulting & asking the tough questions when needed. I support Council resource sharing, waste & food organic systems, better access & inclusion & a strong voice for all residents, businesses & retailers.

MARTIN, Steve

I am asking for your # 1 vote so we can build on my unique record, delivering for Devonport. Our community is healthier, stronger & fairer because of campaigns to maintain & boost services at Mersey Hospital, to deliver huge urban investment through Living City & to ensure Devonport children don't miss out on breakfast or learning opportunities. I have secured more Devonport tourism & jobs by backing local attractions, sports, the arts & increasing flight choices. I am 100 per cent for Devonport. Together we can achieve so much more! Vote 1 Steve Martin for mayor and councillor. Thank you.

Truth telling, honesty and transparency are my core values. Council is a community business and all stakeholders should get a say. Secret deals are the death of democracy. I stand up to bullies. I stand up against deception and I care deeply about our home and the future. Devonport is a beautiful place to live and we need to protect our lifestyle. Plant more trees for shade, make sure our footpaths are safe to walk on, provide safe spaces for all to enjoy and acknowledge that disabled and elderly and LGBTIQ+ are valued and cared for along with all the diversity of our city. Equity for all!

MOORE, Alison

Candidate for councillor

As a local high school teacher, mother to four teenagers and wife, I have an on-the-ground understanding of the needs and wants of the people of Devonport. I am focused and passionate about increasing the opportunities for young people to work, learn and relax in Devonport. I love living in Devonport, and I know how vital our sporting and community organisations are to building our community; and I want to see them continue to be supported. I have experience in governance, education and leadership, and I look forward eagerly, if elected, to serving the people of Devonport.

MURPHY, Leigh

Candidate for councillor, mayor

Having had the privilege to serve the Devonport community over the past four years as a councillor, I am now seeking your number 1 vote for the position of mayor and councillor to continue the hard work already underway. As mayor I would ensure public funds are spent wisely and appropriately on public infrastructure. That our continued economic growth benefits the entire community with a steely focus on keeping council rates below CPI. I would foster a united and cohesive team that would lead the conversation on local government reform to benefit our entire region. Vote 1 Leigh Murphy.

SHEEHAN, Stacey

Candidate for councillor, deputy mayor

I run the family business, One Agency Collins Real Estate, and I'm a former president of the Devonport Chamber of Commerce. I'm a proud mum to a teenage son and I was born and raised here.

I'm running for Council and deputy mayor because I'd like to see Devonport provide more opportunities for the next generation. I'd like to further the Living City master plan, and I'd be a strong advocate for our community groups and sporting clubs - regardless of age, ability or background, they help define our community spirit and bring people together. www.staceysheehan.com.au.

TOWNSEND, Kent

Candidate for councillor, deputy mayor

My vision is to see the lives of each and every person in our community flourish in a vibrant, kind, resilient and determined community culture. We have made great progress in setting up our region for community and economic growth, and as a result endless opportunities now present themselves for our city. Our challenge now is to ensure that we continue to see these opportunities realised, for us to become "living community" - a destination city that is a wonderful place for people to call home and raise a family.

I grew up in Spreyton and had an opportunity to move back to the area 10yrs ago. I met my wife, Kelly here, we live and work in the municipal area and are grateful to be raising our two boys here.

Devonport is a beautiful and safe place to live. I am running for Council because our community needs representation from people with young families and that's the perspective I will add if elected. I'm keen to ensure Council is accountable and to maintain and develop the public spaces that make this area great.

WILCZYNSKI, Janene

Candidate for councillor, deputy mayor

I would like to be your representative as a councillor and deputy mayor in the Devonport City Council. It was a privilege serving you and the community for over 35 years in our pharmacy business, volunteering on sporting, community and commercial bodies, and promoting Devonport at every opportunity. My primary focus is and has always been on improving our great city to benefit all levels of the community and commercial sectors. I would like to extend that service and be your voice on Council. Please vote 1 Janene Wilczynski for councillor and deputy mayor. I would appreciate your support.

WILDEN, Petra

Candidate for councillor

I am committed to good, transparent governance, prioritising sustainable projects that employ local small businesses. Currently employed in the education sector. As your Greens councillor I'll put your interests first and work to improve our community with more money towards health services, affordable housing, more attractive green areas for community and nature use, and constructive action on climate change. I will be the voice on Council who can be trusted to make decisions focussed on a socially responsible, environmentally sensitive and economically sustainable future.
